

King George's Top 9 Reasons Why You Should STOP Being Rebels:

1. I am your King and it is your duty to obey me. It is unthinkable to disobey your KING!
2. Don't ignore my laws. They keep things safe and orderly. Without my rules, there will be chaos!
3. Taxes are due to pay for the French & Indian War. In case you forgot, that was a war I fought to protect YOU from the Indians and French. You owe me. Pay your taxes to me.
4. There are other countries out there that want to attack you – like France and Spain. I will protect you from them.
5. Don't forget the Indians, they don't like you for taking their land! I will protect you from them too!
6. You are not ready to govern yourselves. It's very hard running a country. You can't handle it. That's what Kings like me are for.
7. You buy a lot of things from England (that's my country) – which you really like, such as tea. If you leave me, my country (England) won't be able to sell you things. Say goodbye to tea!

8. By the way, you colonists have businesses and farms – and my country (England) buys a LOT of what you make. You rebel against me and England (my country) will not buy ANYTHING from you anymore. Get ready to be poor!

9. It seems tacky to mention this, but you know I have the largest navy in the world and a huge army with lots of weapons. I can crush you so easily.
